THREE local primary-aged children were winners of the ninth annual Help a Child Grow Art Competition.

Kaysanne Logan (pre-primary) from South Halls Head Primary School, Kyah Franklin and Jazmin Chalklen (both in Year 6) from Singleton Primary School will have their illustrations featured in Therapy Focus-produced storybooks. The stories help to educate children about disabilities and to display their unique talents and qualities.

Therapy Focus patron Priya Cooper, a former paralympian, presented the children with a framed copy of their drawings.
